

ACCESSIBILITY

40TH KURZFILM FESTIVAL HAMBURG

FESTIVAL CENTER POST

The festival center Post (Lampenlager cinema, open-air cinema, open space, bar and club) is fully wheelchair accessible.

There are two wheelchair-accessible mobile toilets. One is approx. 60 meters from the Open Air to the wheelchair-accessible mobile toilets and 15 meters from the in-house Lampenlager cinema. The second one is 10 meters from the club/main entrance.

There are two barrier-free parking spaces in front of the festival center (subject to availability).

3001 KINO

The 3001 movie theater is barrier-free. The inner courtyard is paved with cobblestones. The entrance to the cinema is at ground level with two large double doors. The box office, counter area and access to the auditorium are also at ground level.

There are one to three wheelchair spaces in the auditorium. It is also possible to transfer to a padded cinema chair.

There is a unisex WC at ground level with washing facilities.

B-MOVIE

The B-Movie is not barrier-free: There is no wheelchair-accessible entrance or WC. The inner courtyard is paved with cobblestones.

FILMRAUM

The movie room is barrier-free. Wheelchair spaces are available on request. There is no wheelchair-accessible WC.

LICHTMESS

The cinema can be reached via a ramp that bridges two steps. The threshold at the entrance also has a small ramp. A wheelchair-accessible WC is available.

METROPOLIS

The Metropolis is barrier-free: The entrance at Kleine Theaterstrasse 10, the foyers, the cinema auditorium and the cinema bar are wheelchair accessible.

Four wheelchair spaces are located in the last row of the auditorium in the stalls.

People with hearing impairments can use the Greta & Starcks app to watch all current films with subtitles in the Metropolis auditorium.

A barrier-free toilet is available.

ZEISE KINOS

Only hall 1 is wheelchair accessible. The toilets are in the basement and are therefore not barrier-free.